

CLARKE DERIDES TITLE "AMERICA"

Sir Edward Says Word Implies Domination Over Whole of Western Hemisphere, Which We Do Not Possess.

Ambassador Choate and Archbishop of Canterbury Speak—Latter Declaring Country Is Safe in Roosevelt's Hands.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The annual Thanksgiving banquet of the American Society at the Hotel Cecil was marked by the presentation to Ambassador Choate of a portrait of himself and paid for by subscriptions by members of the society. An unusual note for such a gathering was introduced by Sir Edward Clarke, who, proposing Mr. Choate's health, sarcastically derided the title "American" ambassador, declaring that the word American implied domination over the whole of the Western hemisphere, which the United States does not possess, and is not entitled to, as Great Britain is territorially a larger power on the American continent than the United States. Sir Edward suggested that a more suitable title would be "United States of North America."

Having in the first public criticism here of the State Department's order that ambassadors hereafter shall be called "American," thus uttered a respectful protest against the assumption of the larger name, Sir Edward Clarke proceeded to refer to the miserable underemployment of American judges and America's waste of energies in providing for survivors of the civil war, and in building ironclads, which she could never use.

Ambassador Choate, replying, said that Americans were quite satisfied with their name, and then referred to the recent election in the United States as a splendid tribute of devotion and affection to a great man. Having remarked upon the regeneration of public life in America, regardless of party, now in progress, Mr. Choate alluded to the ever-growing friendship between Great Britain and America as a reason for thanksgiving, and added:

"I asked Lord Lansdowne if he was ready to negotiate a treaty of arbitration. 'Why,' said Lord Lansdowne, 'it goes without saying.'"

Mr. Choate paid a high tribute to the Archbishop of Canterbury's "rediscovery of America," and alluded upon the value of visits to America by such men as the archbishop and John Morley. The archbishop, proposing President Roosevelt's health, said America faced problems greater than the world had ever seen, but by a stroke of genius had found the man to conquer the difficulties. "We on this side," said the archbishop, "not less than brothers to you across the Atlantic, thank God and take courage because the destinies of America are safe in Roosevelt's hands."

NOBLE ENGLISH LADY WORKS AS KITCHEN MAID.

Daughter of the Duke of Hamilton Employed in a Buffalo Boarding House—Has Had a Checkered Career.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 26.—Lady Isola Norton Douglass Hamilton Russell, the woman whose beauty attracted so much attention on the Midway at the Pan-American Exposition here, is at the boarding house kept by Miss Alice J. Burton, at No. 234 Pennsylvania street. Until a few days ago Lady Russell was employed as a kitchen maid by Miss Burton, but was obliged to quit work on account of trouble with her arm, caused by a bear bite she suffered while working with an animal show at Athletic Park here last summer. Lady Russell, according to Miss Burton, ran away from a home of luxury in England and came to America, finding employment as an artist's model in New York. When the Pan-American opened she accepted a position in "Around the World" and there posed in living pictures.

While with the show she married Harry Russell, a "speller," but soon separated from him. He is believed to have died in Boston.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—At the age of 10 years Lady Hamilton ran away from home, and was "found" selling papers in the Royal Court theatre, St. James square, London. Later she was found in a fisherman's boat at Brighton, and again at Cairo, Egypt, where she was selling jewelry at a booth. She is the daughter of the present Duke of Hamilton.

Eva—Your father doesn't object to that young man coming up and sitting every other evening, does he?

Edda—I should say not. He sent up a ton of coal and always brings a pocket electric lamp that sufficiently lights the parlor without gas.—Chicago News.

She—Were you ever disappointed in love before you were married?

He—No. Not until afterward.—Town Topics.

MISSOURI SENATORIAL CANDIDATES MAKE CLAIMS.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 26.—Joseph McCoy, secretary of the Republican State Central Committee, and one of the boomers of Thomas K. Neidringhaus for United States Senator, is in Kansas City pulling for Neidringhaus for Senator. Neidringhaus for United States Senator in the Republican caucus that we consider safe to rely on," McCoy said. If McCoy is not mistaken, all his candidate needs is to get a caucus and prevent Republicans from bolting in it. He is sufficiently confident of his claims to discuss members he believes will vote for his man and a canvass with him of the names shows that he claims nearly all the votes the Parker boomers claim and some that Kerens thinks he can count on. It is very evident that a good many legislators have been counted twice. The Fifth is the only Congressional district in Missouri that does not have some members of the legislature who are counted twice. Neither Parker nor Neidringhaus claims any votes here. Kerens hopes he has four, is sure he has one and feels very confident that he has at least three.

Judge C. E. Moss, member-elect from the Third Legislative district, is working with Senator Clarke for Maj. William Warner. They talked with Maj. Warner and urged him to keep a lightning rod up and to let his friends make the campaign for him on the argument that he is by all odds better qualified than any of the three men now fighting for the place. Maj. Warner is not writing letters and has no managers, but he has received many letters from friends in the country assuring him of support and promising help at the right time.

Mixer up in the Senatorial fight, at least by the gossips, is the possible candidacy of Sam W. Moore for judge of the United States District Court when Judge Phillips shall retire from the bench. The strength of the Kerens boom in Kansas City is largely attributed to the work some of Moore's friends have been doing for him. There is no evidence that Mr. Moore is taking any part in it, but a story that if Kerens is made Senator

"WE ARE THE PEOPLE WHO DO THINGS."

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—"It is a cause for thanksgiving that the campaign of pretence and cant has ended in a victory for sincerity, patriotism and capability," said the Rev. Dr. Robert S. MacArthur, in his sermon Thursday morning, in Calvary Baptist Church. "It was a campaign begun in hypocrisy and ended in slander; it was marked equally by imbecility and by moral obliquity. We did not ask for the universe, but we nearly got it."

several moments until the applause, which Dr. MacArthur always allows in his Thanksgiving Day services, had subsided. The doctor continued:

"No President and no political party can cause American expansion, and no President and no party can stop it. The President or the party which attempts to stop it will be defeated."

factually stopped by the American People.

"Oh, I'm so glad I'm alive," continued Dr. MacArthur, while an audible smile went over the audience. "Yes, I am. I don't want to go to heaven, not yet, for there was never so much heaven on earth as there is this Thanksgiving Day, and soon there will be more, and I want to see it, for we are the people who do things, and we have a government that does things."

"Let the people arise in their might and call what is now known as the Panama Canal, the Roosevelt Canal!"

"He tried to sell me an automobile to-day."

"You don't say? Why, he used to be a horse dealer."

"I thought so. He recommended the auto he was selling as 'sound and gentle.'"—Philadelphia Press.

TAWNEY DECLARES FAIR WILL NEVER BE EQUALED.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 26.—Congressman James A. Tawney, chairman of the committee on expositions of the National House of Representatives, has returned from a final visit to the World's Fair at St. Louis. In speaking of this big Fair now closing, he said:

The fact that the exposition company has repaid to the government the full amount, $4,600,000, which by authority of Congress was loaned the company for the purpose of completing the exposition, is very gratifying to me personally. While the exposition has not been a success financially, the company was nevertheless able to repay this loan, in addition to operating expenses, out of the receipts. Except financially, the exposition has been a marvelous success, and in my judgment the world will never witness another that will equal it.
